

2007

Media Camp

for all Asian Pacific American High School Students!

Oct. 18 - 20

WHY:

Learn Media, Make Friends & HAVING FUN!!

WHERE:

Paul & Sheila Wellstone Elementary School

65 E. Kellogg Blvd. St. Paul, MN, 55101

A fun-filled 3-day residential retreat with your Pan-Asian Pacific peers and it's FREE!

WHAT:

- Multi-Media Production: learn digital photography & print production; tell your stories through photographs, create & edit your own videos, & more
- Asian Pacific American Youth: connect with your peers; attend discussions, game night, banquet, and other fun-filled activities

On Camera or Behind the Scenes

Through hands-on media training, the Media Camp for Asian & Pacific Islanders American Youth will provide students a chance to explore current issues in forms which can effectively reach a broad audience. Students will learn Digital Photography; and produce their own postcards to tell their stories. Students will also have leadership training opportunities & build memories & friendships that last a lifetime.

!!! A Special Kick Off Event !!!

Upscale, Semi-formal Youth Celebration Banquet

October 18, 6pm-8:30 pm at Jackson
Dining Room, St. Paul Travelers

Event Sponsor:
St. Paul Travelers Insurance Co.

Apply online at:

www.amamedia.org/programs/media_camp_register.shtml
or e-mail applications to: roger.tang@amamedia.org

Or send in your application today to:

Asian Media Access
3028 Oregon Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55426
Tel: 612-376-7715
Fax: 612-376-7730

Application Deadline: October 12, 2007

